Albany Bowl

By: Les Ekman

Well, out leagues are "turning for home" at the time of this report, and scores are picking up considerably for the stretch drive.

While we had no perfect games the past month, we had several 279's and 289's plus a heart-breaking 299 by Sho Harris in the Thursday Sleepers.

Naturally, the Bay Alarm 770 Classic produced a majority of 700's led by Latorras Brickley's 276-759 and Noah Berger's 255-757, but there were others including Bill Eason's big 279-742 in the Hot Spot league, Ron Balas' 265-735, Dan Sutton's 267-706 and Lonnie Hasty's 275-701 in the Plaza Mixers, Richard Hom's 244-712 in the EBNBA Junior Classic, Al Hines 256-720 in the Thursday Sleepers, Andrew Bedford's 246-703 in the Junior/Adult, and a 258-710 by Gene Clayton in the Senior Young at Heart league.

Other series worthy of mention were Noel Franlin 263-692, Joe Rideua 259-673, Wade Cyrus 267-675, Sunny Duong 246-683, John Loggins 245-688, Kasa Allen 259-694, Richard Shirraishi 236-672, James Trumbo 252-697, Roy Booker 244-683, Chris Salinas 236-677, Chaiyseith 234-675, Bob Stephenson 245-670, Harold Lueders 279-688, and Eric Hansen 251-676.

Multiple mentionable included Mike Richards 247-720, 245-706 and 248-690, Noah Berger 255-757 and 243-712, Dwayne Giles 268-673 and 278-677, and most impressive of all - consecutive series of 256-673, 222-657, 236-668 and 245-640 by Mike Allen, raising his average from 200 to 209.

Our very capable distaffers were led by Tamara Lemons who blasted a terrific 248-717 in the 770 Classic, Sherry Lam's 234-630 in the Reno Invitational, Salena Montuya's 234-596 in the Friday Nite Live and Charlotte Caldwell's 232-592 in the Graphic Arts.

Our Senior leagues, in addition to Gene Clayton's 258-710 had a great 237-695 by Locke Yow plus Ray Ogata 220-607, Yo Mizusaki 221-631, Ken Higa 245-630, Norman Riley 206-601, Howard Jeffries 247-603, and marks of 215-612 and 234-608 by our premier senior, Fred Cochran.

League highs:
Prime Timers - Fred Cochran 215-612, John Kendrix 540, Helen Holloway 477, Eunice Jackson 466.

Senior Rollers - Howard Jeffries 247-603, John Yong 245-587, Verna Dabney 233-587, Curtis Thompson 209-577, Arthur Moore 243-565, Ernie Thornton 543, Mary Harris 536, Norman Riley 213-535, Thelma Brown 507.

Reno Invitational - Noel Franklin 263-

Gold Pro Pin Tournament: March's Champion was Sam Carter. Sam just stayed plus each game and won handsomely over Phil Campit, his next contender. Our next tournament is scheduled for Saturday April 15th at 1pm. We always use a sport shot and there is always optional side pots and brackets. We had a full field and had to turn away bowlers, reservations are recommended. You may call to make reservations (925-828-7550) or email me, chuck10pin@sbcglobal.net. I hold reservations until 12:45pm on tournament day and the tournament is limited to 36 bowlers. Entry is $55 and pay out is 1 in 4.
